

the Hart

JULY 2023

School's out & you've already run out of things to do.

Or maybe it's business as usual for you - work, play, repeat - now with warmer temps outside!

Whether you're feeling City Mouse or Country Mouse vibes, here are some ways to enjoy summer at its peak in Connecticut:

HARTFORD BONANZA!

a 4th of July celebration to the MAX!

Two days. Fun, food, fireworks. Bushnell Park. Learn more here!

TAKE A HIKE!

Hit the pause button on traffic, the smell of hot asphalt & the noise.

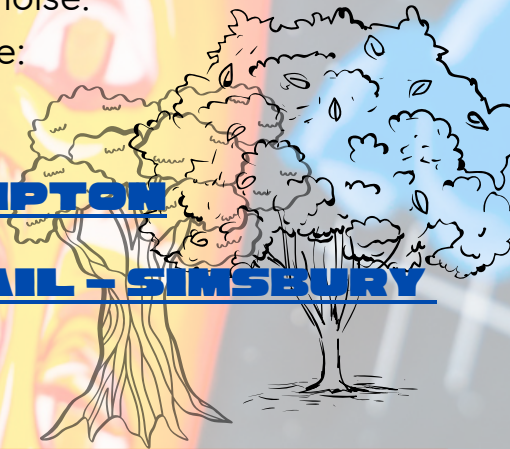

Here are some of our favorite places to connect with nature:

RESERVOIR #6 - WEST HARTFORD

SALMON RIVER TRAIL - EAST HAMPTON

HEUBLEIN TOWER TRAIL - SIMSBURY

DEVIL'S HOPYARD - EAST HADDAM

Play!

Hartford Latino Fest
@ Dunkin' Donuts
Park

Greater Hartford
Festival of Jazz

Pop-up Market
@ The 224
Ecospace

Yoga In Our City
@ various
locations

Creative Cocktail
Hour
@ Real Art Ways

Renaissance Gyal
performance
@ Butler McCook
House Garden

Located in:
SPACE creative healing, 30 Arbor St Offering:
community art workshops, mural
projects, branding & design services Welcoming:
all looking for connection & self-
expression through art

LET'S VISIT The Curious Creative

Majesty Reyes is the visionary behind The Curious Creative. Her observations & experiences as a queer & Latina woman pour onto the canvas. She encourages healing & self expression through art, leading classes, paint nights & community activities. Click here to learn more about The Curious Creative!

WORK PLAY
PARKVILLE MANAGEMENT LIVE